Writing

This week you have been using fronted adverbials to help make your fantastic beast reports interesting.

Practise using fronted adverbials on the sheet on the back of the homework. Then, have a go at writing three sentences about what you have been doing at the weekend.

Challenge: Can you write a paragraph about your weekend using fronted adverbials?

Topic

Next week will be RE week. We will be learning about Hinduism and particularly the festival of Diwali.

Over the weekend, spend some time researching the following questions:

What do Hindu's believe?

What is Diwali?

What is the story behind the celebration?

How do Hindu's celebrate Diwali?

If you or anyone you know celebrates Diwali we would love to share your stories and for you to bring in any diva lamps, examples of rangoli patterns or anything else you would like to share!

Maths

Next week, we will be learning to count in multiples of 6, 7, 9, 25 and 1000. Over the weekend have a go at practising your skills using IXL.

You can use your IXL logins (in your link books) to practise on <https://uk.ixl.com/math/year-4> G

Make sure you continue to practise your times tables on TT Rockstars your log ins are in your link books.

REMINDERS

Reading is compulsory. Please read every day and get an adult to sign your link book.

PE will be every Tuesday, however please make sure that your PE kit is in school every day of the week and washed at the weekend. Palm Class will be swimming every Wednesday; don't forget your swimming kit and towel!

Harvest Festival will be on Friday 26th October. The children will be leaving school at 9am. We desperately need parent walkers to help us to walk the children to the church. Any helpers would be greatly appreciated!!
