

Year Three Preview Learning

THE LHS BIG QUESTION: Who Are We?

W/B: Monday 19th September 2022

Spellings

These are the first words on the Year 3 / 4 spelling list. Please can you learn the following this week at home:

Accident, accidentally, actual, actually

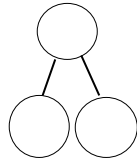

Use 'Look - Cover - Write - Check' to practise the words and then write them within a full sentence.

Maths:

This week we worked on partitioning numbers to 100. Can you partition the below numbers into a part whole model?

79, 56, 83

Next week we're looking at intervals on a number line. Can you work out what the missing numbers are?

P4C:

What qualities do you think a King or Queen should possess and why?

Curriculum

Has Watford aged well?

This week we have been studying the different land uses of the Cassiobury Estate since its origins in 1546. We have considered our own enquiry questions, looked at the reliability of sources and plotted its timeline. Next week, we will be looking further into the Geography of the park. Can you look at the map of the park and plan your preferred route around it?

Please remember, sensible footwear, clothing and to book your packed lunch if required for our visit to the site on Wednesday, as per our letter this week.

Writing

If you do nothing else this weekend....

Next week's learning will be centred around poetry. Please bring in / email to your class teacher, 3 photos of you taking part in special occasions this year e.g. your holiday / days out / birthday. You will need them in order to plan out your poem.

Reading:

Please ensure you read at least three times a week (if not daily) to a parent and ask them sign your link book.

Extraordinary People:

This segment celebrates significant and extraordinary people throughout history, promoting the diversity which we are so fortunate to represent across our school community.

This week we are looking at King Charles III! Please take the time to look this extraordinary person up and find out why you think they have been chosen!
