THE LHS BIG QUESTION: Who Are We?

W/B: Monday 26th September 2022

Spellings

Please can you learn the following this week at home:

Address, although, answer, appear

Use 'Look - Cover - Write - Check' to practise the words and then write them within a full sentence.

Maths:

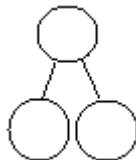

Next week we're working with numbers to 1000. Can you write the following numbers in words:

768

943

625

Can you partition the above numbers into a part whole model?

ECO Councillor

Would you like to be our year group's Eco representative? Prepare your speech to persuade your class to choose you in our vote. Consider why you are a good advocate for eco issues and how you would be a voice for your classmates. We will vote next week.

Curriculum

Has Watford aged well?

Next week, we will be moving our topic based learning into the wonderful world of Science. In order to help answer our question of the week, 'How does my body work?' you might like to keep a food diary over the weekend. Note down all that you eat before deciding whether you think the foods were healthy or unhealthy. You might like to plan a healthy meal for your family instead / as well. A sneaky peak at the Eatwell Plate may help to support your thinking.

Writing

There's still some time to print out or email your photos to us ahead of our lesson next Wednesday. Please bring in / email your class teacher, 3 photos of you taking part in special occasions this year e.g. your holiday / days out / birthday. You will need them in order to plan out your poem.

Reading:

Please ensure you read at least three times a week (if not daily) to a parent and ask them sign your link book.

Extraordinary People:

This segment celebrates significant and extraordinary people throughout history, promoting the diversity which we are so fortunate to represent across our school community.

Our research into this fortnight's extraordinary person continues. King Charles III will be the person of interest in Monday's assembly if you'd like to extend your research.
