Celebrating Extraordinary people

At Laurance Haines, we will be celebrating significant and extraordinary people in history, promoting the diversity which we are fortunate to represent across the school community.

Next week we will be exploring Paul Stephenson.

Could you research and write as much information on them as possible. We will be sharing this in class and during assemblies.

Link books need to be regularly signed and in school every day with the children in order to show that the children are reading at home. If the children have lost them, a new one can be provided for £1.

During half term could you please collect food boxes, cartons and toilet roll tubes to be used in our Design & Technology lessons.
